

Shami Crystals

Shami Crystals play an important role in the Draco Leopard Storyline. Any species that has a Shami Crystal in their possession can appear as whatever the crystal is programmed to imitate to the onlooker. Ex. If the crystal is programmed as Elvis Presley the owner will look like Elvis to everyone around them. The different color and shape crystals will also hold other powers and different strength levels to be announced later. The crystals will be very important to the future Draco Leopard Holders in more than the ways explained below.
